ANOTHER FINE ONE. Some of the Good Things to be Found in Tomorrow's Twelve-Page Star.

Tomorrow's twelve-page STAR, if such a thing is possible, will even surpass the brilliant issues which have preceded it. Its columns will be crowded with a full history of the day and over found in the lead in every department. The father, mother and children will all find something of especial interest in this mammoth edition, and even the influence of the season may be traced in the bright, fresh, springlike STAR which will be issued tomorrow. The following are a few of the special chapters to be MARRIED THE WRONG MAN. One Sad Result of the Easter Rush to Get Wedded.

A special to the New York Herald from Tribes Hill, N.Y., says: The marriage of Henry V. Moore and Miss Jennie Hart, which occurred Tuesday evening near this village, was marked by a sensational feature which has just transpired.

Rev. W. F. Poor performed the ceremony and when he had finished the bride burst into tears and cried: "I have married the wrong man," On being asked who the right one might have been she indicated the young man who had acted as best man.

It has been tearned that both the groom and his best man were suitors for her hand, and, aithough she did not like Moore as well as the in a fit of pique she accepted him and then did not dare to back out. When the irrevocable words were pronounce her for life, however, her emotion overpowered her and she was unable to restrain the tell tale words which rushed to her lips. The affair has created great excitement among the 'riends of the contracting parties. They are now in Washington, presumably trying to forget them.

A Farewell to Mrs. Foster. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, president of the nonpartisan W.C.T.U. of the District, will leave for Europe on the 19th, accompanied by her son. At the afternoon session of the first quarterly meeting of the union vesterday ar-rangements were made to tender Mrs. Foster a farewell reception at Temperance Home, on 434 street, on the 17th. The report of the treasurer showed that during the two months since the union was organized it has received $162, and has $45 in the treasury.

Cut With a Bread Knife.

Daniel Myers, colored, twenty years old, was before the Police Court this morning on a charge of assault and battery. The prosecuting witness in the case was Charles Laughton, a colored man who is employed at Sander's saloon, where Myers was also employed. Myers, it appeared, put on a pair of shoes be-longing to Laughton. They then quarreled about the shoes and finally came to blows, during which Myers used a bread knife on Laugh-ton, cutting his hand and inflicting a painful wound. Laughton also received a slight cut on the shoulder. When Officer Caverly went down in the cellar after the prisoner he heard a noise that sounded like a pistol shot, but there was no pistol to be found. Each accused the other of committing the first assault. The court decided against Myers and gave him three months.

SOCIAL MATTERS. What Fashionable People Are Doing-

Personal Notes. Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Russell Harrison recived a few ladies by appointment yesterday afternoon in the red parlor between 3 and 4 clook. The callers were ladies who were going out of town and would not be in the city over the Saturday afternoon drawing room. Mrs. Ellen Foster, with a party of friends, and special articles of interest to every member of Mrs. Ellen roster, with a party of Mrs. and Miss Cabell, with some friends, were the family. As in the past, The Star will be among the visitors. Mrs. Harrison were a becoming toilet of lustrous black satin, and Mrs. Russell Harrison wore a becoming princess dress of wine-colored satin, embroidered with et and finished with a deep flat frill of India silk that surrounded the pretty neck and ran the length of the front of the gown from chin to hem. Mrs. McKee is still in Boston and does not expect to return here before the beginning or middle of next week, when Mr. McKee will accompany her here and spend a few days be-fore leaving for his place of business in Indian-

A gay and nautical event of yesterday was Commander Hoff's reception on board the receiving ship Dale, and it drew a large society contingent down to the navy yard. The Dale, with her inclosed decks, was as snug as a house and flags were gayly floating from every exposed point. The rafters were entwined with the national colors and a group of tropical palms and Easter lilies added to the festivity of the scene. A substantial collation was served on the lower deck and the punch had the true flavor of a briny brew. Commander Hoff received officially between the hours of 4 and 7. The officers were all in uniform and the ladies were in suits of navy blue and hats of shiny tarpaulin, and there were over three hundred visitors on board. The entertainment was in the nature of an experiment and was so great a success in every way as to insure a repetition

General and Mrs. Spinola have issued handsome cards of invitation for a high tea to be given in the new tea room of the Arlington on Wednesday afternoon, April 23, from 4 to 7. Miss Whitford, who spent the winter with Mrs. Spinola, has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

begin until 4:15, in order that school children and persons in office may have an opportunity to attend. The oriental costumes for the tableaux have all been designed from old pictures and will be faithful to life.

The wedding of Miss Lottie Graves and Mr. Charles L. Martin took place at Grace P.E. Church, Georgetown, Wednesday evening. The ushers were Messrs, Wm. Turton, Charles P. Gibbons, David E. Graves and Louis Goodrick. Mr. George W. Graves, brother of the bride, was best man, Miss Nellie Martin, sister of the groom, bridesmaid, and Miss Mabel Hoskinson maid of honor. The chancel was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens and the church crowded with friends of contracting parties. The ceremony wa performed by Rev. Thomas O. Tongue, after which the newly wedded pair were driven to the home of the bride's parents, where a largely attended reception was held. The bride was the recipient of numerous and val-uable presents. Amid showers of rice and best wishes of friends the young couple were driven to their new home, 1815 34th street.

New Flash-Light for Photographing. At a regular meeting of the Washington Chemical Society held last evening Dr. Thos. Taylor of the United States Department of Agriculture exhibited a new flash-light intended to take the place of several kinds which have of late proved highly dangerous in practice. The composition of Dr. Taylor's new flash-light consists largely of charcoal made from the silky down of the milk weed, a form of carbon which he prefers to all others, be-cause of its freedom from ash. A few grains of this new composition placed on tissue paper and lighted by a punk match produced a prompt and blinding flash, while it was observed that the paper on which the powder rested was not even scorched. The flash being instantaneous the heat is not sufficient to ignite the most in-flammable material on which the powder may rest. Dr. Taylor demonstrated this by using, with the same paper for a base, an inferior flash-light, which set fire to the paper at once. The trial of Michael Leech for keeping an unlicensed bar was resumed before the court. The defense was that application had been grade. Dr. Taylor said that the powder of

It isn't the number of men a soldier kills, so much as the number of men he does not let kill him, that makes him a warrior. A great many men ordinarily industrious are 'soldiering" today.

ALEXANDRIA.

Reported for THE EVENING STAR. GOOD TEMPLARS AND LIQUOR LICENSES.—The Good Templars have committees from both Golden Light and Talisman Lodges, appointed to agitate for more active temperance work here, and it is understood that advantage will be taken of the establishment of the board of excise, by the new law, to contest in many cases the issue of licenses where, it is contended, the applicants have not the requirements made necessary by the law. The Good Templars' committee will have a conference with the ministers of several of the churches this evenvance the temperance cause. It is an open secret that the new law is not so much intended to control the liquor traffic as to prevent the use of coupons in payment for liquor licenses, Before any application can be considered by the excise board the applicant must present a certificate that he has complied with the law as to the deposit of cash or properly proven coupons with the treasurer. Then the board can consider the license, and both before the board and before the court certain protests against and before the court certain protests against licenses will be received. As yet only two applications for license have been filed.
Notes.—The funeral of Mrs. Sarah M. Simpson took place this morning from 114 Henry street and the remains were sent to Lynchburg It was shown that the application had been filed, but was returned for other signatures, and was given to a party to obtain them and the defendant was informed that it had been refiled. The court said that the simple question was whether he acted in good faith or otherwise. The District had furnished no proof that the application had not been refiled. INQUIRING FOR JANE MACK. Detectives Looking for a Woman Who

"Where is Jane Mack?" is the question that is at present puzzling Detectives Raff and Carter. Jane was a rag-picker, but was supported mostly by the charity of her neighbors. She lived at the house of a colored rag-dealer named W. H. Campbell, No. 1254 3d street southwest, which is in the neighborhood of "Blood Field" and "Fredericksburg."

Disappeared Mysteriously.

Jane, who was about fifty years old, had lived at the house of Campbell for a long time prior to the 1st of February, when Campbell wanted her room, as he was making preparations for the extension of his business. Then the old woman rented a summer kitchen in rear of Mrs. Holland's house, next door, for $1 on the morning of February 3 she left the house. Mrs. Holland says she asked her where she was going and Jane replied: "I'm going over to Georgetown, honey, and find my peoover to Georgetown, honey, and find my peo-ple." That morning, Mrs. Holland says, Jane had an umbrella and bag in her hands. Although Jane did not return Mrs. Holland did not report her disappearance to the police.

After she left Campbell's house the latter's wife used to hand Jane something to eat over the fence every morning and the last morning she knocked for her she received no response, but thought she heard Jane groaning. Noth-ing was heard of Jane after the day mentioned, and her disappearance was not reported to the police until yesterday, when one of the neigh-bors, who suspected foul play, called at police headquarters and made his statement to Inspector Swindells.

The inspector detailed Detectives Carter and Raff to investigate the case and they visited the houses of Mrs. Holland and Cambell. They learned that Jane came here eleven years ago from South Carolina and she often stated that she had no relatives here. She several times said that she had some gold and silver jewelry and it was also thought that she had money, although no one claims to have ever seen the money.

The room in which Jane lived is locked on the outside and has not been opened since she left it. The officers are of the opinion that there is something wrong about the mysterious disappearance, but whether there was any foul play or not they will not give an opinion.

The records of the health office were searched, but her name does not appear among the names of the dead, nor is she in any of the hospitals or charitable institutions.

Camp Fire at G.A.R. Hall.

An unusually interesting meeting of the old soldiers was held last evening at Grand Army Hall, the occasion being a camp fire given under the auspices of Burnside Post No. 8. Speeches were made by Judge Veasy of Vering little laugh that he felt like throwing a mont, Gov. Fletcher of Missouri and Gen. Bane of Illinois. Dr. Mallam read an interesting paper giving reminiscences of the Crimean war, in which he served as an officer in the English army. Mr. Fleming of Indiana and Capt. O. H.
